

Blood Struggle

The Blood Struggle is eternal. The Blood Struggle is not a choice. The Blood Struggle began with the first seeds of Western Civilization and it will only die when our people perish from this earth and the western flame is extinguished. It is the collective history of western man. The books, art, philosophy, religion and culture of western man are all manifestations of the eternal Blood Struggle for advancement and for survival.

A parasite has infected the soul of western man. A parasite which leaves only concrete ruins were once stood vibrant green earth. A parasite which sucks on the blood and the soil of our people. Man has become infected with a disease, a disease of weakness. Western man is not infected with mere physical weakness, but a weakness far more destructive to civilization. A weakness of the soul. Western man was once strong, valiant and honorable. Our people no longer have the will to survive. Only a dark void were was once a soul of steel.

Often I gaze at this degenerate mass of civilization and wonder how we could have gotten this far. We who were once proud, honorable, and racially conscious. One idea more than any other has contributed to the current state of our world. A doctrine so out of touch with the laws of nature it is capable of bringing about an end to western civilization. This doctrine is Christianity. Nature's highest law is the survival of the fittest. In nature if an animal is weak or unfit it perishes, either through predation or starvation the weak die off leaving only the strong and the healthy. Nature strives for the survival of the strongest and the death of the weak. It preaches the good of the pack, the survival of the fittest and that might makes right. Through the ages Christianity has preached the opposite. That those who nature would have starve to death in their own excrement, or torn limb from limb by the claws of a predator, or trampled under the hooves of the strong be helped in their quest for survival so they are left sucking as a leach on the blood of the fit. Through the ages Christianity has preached extending a helping hand to the unfit, while natural law dictates we extend a closed fist to smash the weak out of existence.

The goal of our struggle is victory. We do not believe in engaging in useless diversions which distract us from our farsighted goals. Victory will not be won by useless yet time consuming tasks. Victory will be won by moving the will of the people. It will require a revolution of the Blood. A will of iron must be forged into the collective soul of the European man. The long dead pagan fires which burn inside must be rekindled until a roaring blaze is in the heart of the people. Alien ideas and concepts such Christianity, humanitarianism, and equality must be forever eliminated from the psyche of the west. A new credo based on the natural law of survival of the fittest must replace the decrepit Judeo-Christian values of today. We must reawaken the Blood Struggle. The people's will shall then demand, as it has done so often throughout history, the purging of the enemy in their midst.

These Patriots could use some mail. Let your Aryan comradeship soar and send them a letter, card or magazine to help them pass the long hours in the enemy's prison camps. I myself am a prisoner, and have been writing to dozens of poor and unfortunate comrades of our's. Please write to atleast one of these people, and consider sponsoring him for a publication such as THULE, VOICE OF THE RENAISSANCE, or STORM WATCH. It is very important to support these comrades. Many are isolated with no one to talk to, or locked among lesser races & Scum of the Earth. Don't let your Kinsmen fall by the wayside. Assure them that the movement is strong, that you Do care whether they live or die. After writing one of them and getting a response, write Me & tell me it wasn't worth the effort, I dare you!
